

I feel that the USA stand for choice and my choice is that the "NO" Call list should not be changed. I feel time with my family is more important than answering calls for stuff I am not even interested in, if I want something I will on my own time shedule go and find it. Thank You!